“ Fred was one of the nicest guys ever. He was a family man and loved family and loved when the grand babies were around. Ryan and Miranda have alot of wonderful memories with him. My kids Jared,Kendra and Brett do also, he always treated us like family no matter where we would see him. He and Alma always welcomed anyone into there home many lunches I had with them at the kitchen table. He love to play Yahtzee and go to a good yard sale. He always seemed to have one of everything. That garage...how he knew where things were blew my mind. Fred rest easy you have earned it and we all will miss you. Keep a spot that the kitchen table for mom.
Love always

“ Uncle Fred, you were always more than an "Uncle." You were a best friend, a brother, a man who would give his last shirt to anyone who needed it. You were always there for all of us, to lend a hand, listen to a story, or just to have some fun. So many memories have come flooding back to me, recently. Our visits to the House of Flavors, some really great concerts, family reunions. Heaven has gained a wonderful Angel. You have earned this rest. May you enjoy all the happy reunions with Gary, Dick, Dad, Grandma and Grandpa, as well as all those whose friendship you enjoyed.

Aunt Alma and Kids, although Uncle Fred has passed on to Heaven, we all know he is there, watching over each and everyone, smiling at the wonderful and beautiful Family that he and Aunt Alma created. May the love and precious memories from times past, always keep the sweet Loved One alive within your hearts.
