“ I remember spending a lot of time at the farm with (great) Aunt Helen and (great) Uncle Robert. Cherished memories of milking cows, teasing a bull, climbing in a corn crib, and eating delicious meals. When they used to stay at Bass Lake, we had many bonfires. We would all beg Aunt Helen to sing a song in Swedish. She never believed she had a beautiful voice, but to this day, I've never heard anyone sing so lovely. When Aunt Helen and Uncle Robert moved to the lake permanently, I loved visiting them whenever we could. I'm so glad I was able to see Aunt Helen when I came back to Michigan for a visit in 2011. There are no words to comfort Uncle Robert and the rest of Aunt Helen's family, but I love all of you and wish I could've been home during this time. Love to all of you...Shellie Genter Ellison

“ To my dear friend Helen, I will miss your smile, your laugh, and the stories we shared. Bass Lake will never be the same. The porch is emptier now. Rest in peace friend, until we meet again. Love,Patti
