June 28, 1926 - April 29, 2020

Jean Irene Miller aged 93, longtime resident of Baldwin, died on Wednesday, April 29, 2020 at Oakview Medical Care Facility in Ludington. Jean was born on June 28, 1926 in Reed City, the daughter of Glenn and Irene (Gardner) Avery and graduated from Baldwin High School with the class of 1945. On December 30, 1944, she married Arthur C. Miller in Baldwin and they celebrated 74 years together before Arthur preceded her in death on November 2, 2019. Jean was also preceded in death by her parents, her daughter Nancy Marshall, and her sister Glenna Lapointe.

Lately she stayed active socializing and working on projects at the Baldwin Senior Center. As her health deteriorated, Jean was fortunate to be cared for at Ludington Woods Living Center and Oakview Medical Care Facility in Ludington. Her family deeply thanks all of the nurses and staff who assisted in caring for their mother, and would also like to recognize her niece Vicki Anthony for all of the love and attention she gave Jean.

“ I'm so very sorry for this great loss. Heaven has truly gained a glorious angel. Jean will always have a special place in my heart. She and Art were such wonderful friends to my Mom and Dad. May you find comfort in the wonderful memories of her. RIP beautiful Jean.

“ We would like to send our sympathy to all of Jean's family. We got to know both of them when we moved here way back in the 1970's.. They took us camping and showed us how to do it.. They - Jean and Art were great people. They were great friends of ours and we will miss them very much. I went to see them several times when they were in Ludington .
