“ My wife Gail and I knew the Lapenas family many years ago. Especially remembering Sonia and Alexis and their family, including her parents Alex and Frances. Always amazed at how intelligent the family was.

The family should be proud of how Bill continued to better his education throughout his life.

My wife Gail is now deceased but the many happy memories of the Lapenas and Bradow families we had, will never be forgotten.

Sincerely,

Gary Dancz

Marlene Chiesa - August 21 at 10:36 PM

“ Thank you Marlene. Your Messaging for our sympathy has come through to our family loud and clear. Thank you for always being ready to help in whatever we attempt. Bill helped with the Adopt A Highway program that you headed, on behalf of our Memorial Hospital of Ludington. It was a stretch of highway North of Scottville. You needed all of the helping hands you could get to pick up the highway garbage. The first Spring trash gathering was the largest. You were glad to have help. Love. Alexis Lapenas Gestes-Bradow

“ Bill loved to hunt with family and friends every fall. The farm was bustling with excitement and good food. But the one thing Bill loved day and night, in addition to his family, were his dogs. While had different breeds in his life, German Shorthair Pointers I believe we're his favorite. The dogs were members of the family. They slept with Bill when they could sneak space on the bed. They waited for him to come home from work. They followed him wherever he went. You see they loved Bill with all of their hearts. My memory of Bill was that his heart was full of love for his dogs. Every day in every way. Bless you dear friend.

“ Yes Mary Lou, Bill loved his dogs. I still have his German Short Hair, named Rambo II that was born Sept 21 2005. Rambo will be 15 years old next month. Rambo is keeping me company, along with our other dog, Randy, which is a Border Collie that loves to run. Daily, I must take the dogs for a long walk or they will bark and bark at me. The puppies are keeping me active. Thank you for giving us a kind memory. Love from the Alexis Lapenas Gestes-Bradow Clan. Bill suffers no more.

“ Thank you Diana for all of your support. Bill always enjoyed your laughter and great meals. Carrot Cake, Marinated Carrots, Polish Roses, Prime Rib and so many fun and games in your back yard for the many Easter Meals you put on at your house. He always enjoyed your galas. Yes, Bill is resting in peace now. He suffered so but never complained.

“ What a treasure of a photo. That must be a father and son dinner. Bill's father Louis Bradow.

Alexis bradow - August 25 at 11:11 AM

“ Look at Louis dark hair and his son has the blond coloring. Bill got his blond hair from his mom. All of the Peplansky children are blonds too. So is Bill's daughter, Alexandria a blond. That proves that the blond is the dominate gene! Thank you for sharing that special photo!
Love Aunt Alexis
