

Doris R. Obel

September 10, 1930 - October 4, 2014

Doris Rae Obel, aged 84 of Ludington, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 4, 2014 with her beloved husband Floyd, by her side.

Doris was born on September 10, 1930 in Elberta, Michigan, the daughter of Glen and Rae (Fitzhugh) Ferris, and graduated from Ludington High School with the class of 1948. On the day after her 18th birthday, September 11, 1948, she married Floyd Obel in a ceremony officiated by Rev. John Christensen, and they have celebrated 66 years by each other's side. After raising their 3 children, Doris began working for the Traverse Bay Woolen Company in Ludington, and retired as the manager after 20 years of service. She loved to spend time fishing with her family and visiting the casino every Wednesday for Seniors Day.

Doris will be greatly missed by her husband Floyd, her 3 children Edward (Denise) Obel of Texas, Kathy (Clair) Reed of Tennessee, and Diana (Curt) Potter of Ludington, 8 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, her sisters Nancy (Bob) Coats of Brethren, and LeAnn Adams of Florida, her brother Ronald (Dorothy) Ferris of Grand Rapids, and several nieces and nephews. Doris was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Glen "Joe" Ferris.

A Celebration of Life service will be held for Doris in the summer 2015. No services or visitation are scheduled at this time. Doris will be laid to rest at Lakeview Cemetery in Ludington later this fall.

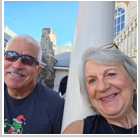

Those who wish to remember Doris with a memorial contribution are asked to consider Harbor Hospice.

“ Our sympathies to all of the Obel family on the passing of Doris. My favorite memories of her were working with her and her daughter Diane at Traverse Bay Woolen Co. It was one of my 1st jobs and she was always so kind and fun to work with. She trained & taught me many things & I will always remember her laugh and upbeat spirit! She will be missed greatly!
Sincerely, Nancy (Kazlauskas) Smith - Poncho's Pond RV Park
