

Florice May Lynn

May 20, 1943 - February 7, 2026

Florice May Lynn age 82 of Ludington passed away on Saturday, February 7, 2026 at Corewell Health Ludington Hospital with her daughters by her side. Florice was born on May 20, 1943 in Eden Township, the daughter of Maynard and Beulah (Riffle) Marrison and graduated from Mason County Central High School with the class of 1961. On March 9, 1974 she was wed to John Edward Lynn at the Scottville United Methodist Church and they celebrated 47 years together before John preceded her in death in 2021.

Florice and John farmed together in Eden Township for many years while Florice also worked at Stokely Cannery in Scottville, and Fruit Packers and Chase Farms. Her most cherished role was being a wife to John and a mother to her daughters.

Florice will be greatly missed by her daughters Julie Ann and Jill Marie Lynn both of Ludington; her sister Karen (Pat) Dillehay; and brother-in-law William (Yolanda) Lynn all of Ludington; along with several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Along with her husband John, Florice was also preceded in death by her parents Maynard and Beulah; her brothers Kenneth and Edwin Marrison; and John's parents Evert and Margaret Lynn.

A Memorial Service to celebrate Florice's life will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, May 23 at the Hart Christian Fellowship in Hart. Burial will take place at Lakeside Cemetery in Eden Township following the services.

Those who wish to remember Florice with a memorial donation are asked to please consider the care of her daughters.

“ I met the Lynn family after I married Jan Marrison. A wonderful close loving family dedicated to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I pray for comfort and peace as the family grieves. Florice has fallen asleep. She will wake up with all of us who believe when Jesus makes his triumphant return. May that day come sooner than later. AMEN!
