“ We just recently learned of Jeff's passing. We met Jeff in 1991 when he met my daughter Melissa. He came to our farm home numerous times. He spent Thanksgiving & Christmas with us. He even prepared for us a traditional Grant speciality orderve: thin sliced ham, cream cheese & green onion rolled up in to bite size pieces. We throughly enjoyed them.

We enjoyed Jeff's company, his sense of humor and his willingness to always help with anything around our farm.

My husband and I were absolutely shocked and very saddened to hear that he had passed 2 years ago.

If anyone should read this tribute would you please contact us at.

“ Jeff is my Brother and my buddy when we were children and teens. We hunted, fished and hung out together. Jeff had a kind heart. I miss you Jeff. ❤️

“ Jeff was a very nice guy, my boyfriend and I were lucky to get to have him as a friend. Everywhere he went so did his two furry companions. They were always by his side. Jeff was a good man and do anything to help you out if he could. He could always make you laugh. He will be missed dearly. My condolences to friends and family 🌹
