“Father, I thank You that we have a High Priest Who is able to understand and sympathize and have a fellow feeling with Carrine's Grief over the loss of her husband. There fore, I fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace; that Carrine may receive mercy and find grace to help in good time for every need – appropriate and well-timed help, coming just when Carrine needs it.

Father, I thank You that Carrine does not sorrow, as one who has no hope, because she believes that Jesus died and rose again; even so her loved one also who sleeps in Jesus will God bring back with Him. I ask that You comfort Carrine, for You said, Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted (Matt. 5:4)

Jesus, You have come to heal the brokenhearted. It is in the name of Jesus that You, Father, comfort Carrine because You have loved her and have given her everlasting consolation and good hop through grace.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforts Carrine in all her tribulation, that she may be able to comfort those which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith she herself is comforted by God.

Father, thank You for appointing unto Carrine who mourns in Zion, to give unto her beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that she might be called a tree of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that You might be glorified.

In the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen
