“ Judy taught me how to drive the bookmobile for her after she was to retire. I can still hear her say " take the corners slow or all the books will fall of the shelf." I learned her slow & my slow were different - I picked up books! She was so nice :)

“ Aunt Judy, I will miss your smile, sassy attitude, and your annual phone call to sing happy birthday to me. Give Dad a big old bear hug for me. I will remember fondly the days of hanging out in the book mobile with you and the laughs shared over a beverage. I love you and will miss you.
