

Larry Roy Stanton Jr.

February 27, 1972 - February 22, 2024

Larry Roy Stanton, Jr., known to his friends and family as "Little Larry," left us to join the great playground in the sky on February 22, 2024, at the age of 51. Born on February 27, 1972, in Lansing, MI, he resided in Paris, MI, formerly of Fountain, MI.

Little Larry's laughter was infectious, and his playful spirit knew no bounds. He never heard a joke he didn't like. His heart was as big as his sense of humor, and he made sure every moment was packed full of fun.

He is survived by his fun-loving sisters, Anita (Bob) Englert, Lisa (Michael) Switzer, and his brother-in-arms, Paul Lefler. His band of merry nephews, David Lefler Jr, Rico, and Aaron Samora, and his giggling nieces, Ashley Delano, Megan Walker, Autumn Jolly, and Danielle Chrisple, will miss their fun uncle. His legacy of laughter will live on through his many great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins.

Preceded in death by his parents, Larry and Margaret Stanton, and his brother, David Arthur Lefler Sr., we can only imagine the shenanigans they're up to now that they're reunited.

A private memorial service will be held where chuckles will be shared and memories cherished. Wyman Funeral and Cremation in Scottville, MI, is in charge of the cremation

So here's to Little Larry, a man who never grew old because he knew the secret: life's too important to be taken seriously. May he rest in peace, and may his jokes live forever in the hearts of those he touched. Keep the laughter going, Larry!
