“ Paula was my sister in law and I always loved and the kids still do. I remember there wedding to my brother Roy Smith I was one of the Lady's in the wedding and pregnant for my son Albert 11. When they lived in Wis. my older sons use to go spend some time with them.
Before they got married we lived in Muskegon and Paula and Roy come to visit us and we was talking about how old we was , I told her my age then she looked at Roy and said how can that be that your the same age as your sister so she then found out how old he really was. Well guess it didn't matter they still got married. There is so many memory's I have but it could take along time to share them all. So Paula love you and will miss you.
Peace be with all the family I love you all.
