

Raymond Peter Dewyer

April 16, 1954 - February 17, 2023

Raymond Peter Dewyer, age 68, passed away in his home in Faribault, Minnesota on February 17, 2023. Raymond was born on April 16, 1954 in Ludington, Michigan to Ovid and Emily Dewyer and grew up in Pentwater. Raymond met Suzanne Marie Nigro while attending college at Michigan State University and they were married in October 1977. They had two sons, Nicholas Alexander Dewyer and Stephen Garrett Dewyer and raised them in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Raymond and Suzanne divorced in 1996 and he did not remarry. Raymond spent time living and working in southeast Michigan, Kansas, and Indiana before settling in Faribault, Minnesota. He had a career in corporate environmental, health, and safety before spending the last few years enjoying the freedom of retirement.

Raymond is remembered as a proud and loving father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He remained fond of Pentwater, its people, and time spent on the water there. Having the mind of an engineer, he enjoyed home projects, electronics, cars, and motorcycles. He had a passion for researching his family's genealogy and history. Raymond was reliably jovial and cherished sharing good wine and conversation.

Raymond is survived by his sons Nicholas (Katrina) and Stephen; his brother Dale (Susan), his sisters Diana (Mario) and Sherry, and grandson Alexander.

A graveside memorial service will be held for family and friends at Brookside Cemetery in Scottville on Thursday, June 1st, at 11:00 am.
