Rosetta Jane Taylor aged 91 of Custer passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 10, 2017. Rosetta was born on October 10, 1925 in Custer, the daughter of Walter and Olive (Hannah) Forbes. On May 1, 1947 she married Claud J. Taylor in Riverton Township and they celebrated 55 years together before Claud preceded her in death in 2002. She enjoyed spending time knitting, crocheting, working in her garden, making lawn chairs, quilting and sewing among many other talents. When her children were young, she sewed most of the clothes they wore. Rosetta's greatest love was always found caring for her husband and family. She was truly a Virtuous Woman as stated in Proverbs 31.

Rosetta will be greatly missed by her children Diana McCumber of Custer, Kathy Rees and husband Larry of Ludington, Mark Taylor and friend Cheryl Stephens of Custer; her grandchildren Susan Paskvan and husband Christopher of Wheaton, IL, Trudy McCumber, and Scott McCumber both of Custer, Lynsey Chinnery of Lake City, Christopher Chinnery of Ludington,

“ Aunt Rosetta was very dear to me. She has shared many of her plant's with me. Two of the violet's she gave me bloom most of the time. Her dahlia bulb's I plant in the spring and dig up in the fall. I have been able to share them with many people who enjoy the flower's as I do. Aunt Rosetta was fun to be with. and always's had a smile on her face. I enjoyed the time's I could visit with her. I love her and will miss her, but I will be with her in heaven one day. Love Shirley
