

William Henry Simpson

June 8, 1950 - March 16, 2019

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ William "Bart" was a friend of mine that I met a couple years ago. He was an Air Force vet (my parents were too). He was very much into art like I am so we discussed ideas and got to know each other. He was a nice and funny guy with a lot of jokes. He loved his girlfriend Dorothy and his cat named Snowball. He was a very talented person with his art, poems, and playing musical instruments like electric guitar, drums, and piano. I am thankful that he met someone special before his passing. They were going to be married this summer. I pray for Bart and his family and friends here and in Chicago. RIP Bart.

Sara - March 21, 2019 at 04:06 PM